

How can I make a difference? We chose to become members of the Denver Jewish Day School Legacy Society because we've always believed that the secret to living is giving – both of material wealth and of time. We judge our wealth not by how much we have, rather by how much we give away. Denver JDS has helped our sons, Jonah and Gabe, not only learn, but also live these timeless philanthropic values.

– Rabbi Eliot and Dr. Hilary Baskin

Q: I'm about to speak with my attorney about naming Denver Jewish Day School (Denver JDS), formerly Herzl/RMHA, as a beneficiary in my Will. What do I need to tell him/her?

A: Glad you asked! It is very simple to designate a bequest to Denver JDS with the ultimate gift of getting your bequest working the way you intended. Below is recommended language for any bequest to Denver JDS.

I hereby give and bequeath to Denver Jewish Day School, a not-for-profit corporation having its offices at 2450 South Wabash Street, Denver, CO 80231:

$/% _____ from my estate to be used for general purposes.

I prefer not to specify, but Denver JDS is named in my Will.

You may indicate interest in a particular program:
