

Free Program open to ALL JEWISH 11th and 12th Graders.

When you head to college, you also head into all kinds of new conversations. Will you be prepared to confidently talk about Israel to your peers?

What: A workshop with Charlotte Korchak — who is 23 and works for Stand With Us. She is freshly out of college and well aware of how hard it is to defend your beliefs and explain your position on Israel while at college. She is dynamic, engaging and ready to help give you the tools and understanding you need.

Session 1: Empower

What Israel means to you & what role you can play in being an advocate for Israel.

Session 2: Gain Perspective

Take a look at Israel's surrounding geography and history

When: January 29, 2012, Part 1 and Part 2, 2:00-4:00 p.m.
* IST Students arrive at 1pm

Location: University of Denver Merage & Allon Hillel Center, 2390 S. Race St. Denver, CO 80210

Session 3: Prepare & Educate

Understand how to get involved on campus and how to talk about hot issues as well as techniques on how to determine campus organizations REAL agendas.

When: Wednesday, February 1, Part 3, 6:30-8:00pm

Location: Temple Sinai, 3509 S. Glencoe Street, Denver, CO 80237

Go to: www.caje-co.org/hhd for more info.

This program is FREE — thanks to an anonymous sponsor.

RSVP by January 25th to receive a copy of Myths and Facts: A Guide to the Arab-Israeli Conflict

RSVP to sdelcau@caje-co.org or call 303-321-3191

It's not required to attend both sessions — one or both is great!